

Question List

What are three things about you that someone would not know just by looking at you?

What is your full name? Do you know why that name was chosen for you, and/or the meaning of your name?

Do you have any foods or recipes that are part of family traditions?

What is your favorite holiday tradition? What is meaningful to you about the experience?

What is your favorite book or movie, and why?

What do you like to do in your free time, and how did you become interested in this activity?

Who is a person you admire? What is one quality you admire about them, and a story or an example of how they demonstrate that quality?

What are your three superpowers?

When people come to you for help, what kind of help are they usually asking for?

How long have you called Wisconsin your home?

What is your favorite spot in Milwaukee?

If you could plan your dream day, what would you spend your time doing?

What music or song brings back a happy memory?

What was your favorite thing to do as a kid?

What advice would you give your younger self?

Have you ever been "The Only One"? What was that experience like? How did people make you feel welcome in that situation, or what do you wish they would have done to make you feel welcome?

Hours Against Hate is an initiative of the Milwaukee Jewish Federation that connects people across lines of difference through service and programming. For more information, visit HoursAgainstHate.com or contact Andrea Bernstein at AndreaB@MilwaukeeJewish.org or 414-390-5775.

How do you feel welcomed in a new space?

How comfortable do you feel making others feel welcome?

What do you wish people knew, or understood about you?

Have you ever been surprised about someone?

What do you think surprises others to learn about you?

When do you feel most at peace?

What topic do you most love to talk about?

What do you feel hopeful about?

If you could solve one problem in your community, what would that be, and what do you imagine your community might look like as a result?

What volunteer work are you passionate about, or what volunteer work do you hope to do in the future?

Do you identify as being American? What does that mean to you?